

RULES FOR PARTICIPATION

ANNEX No. 3 REGISTRATION AS A PROFESSIONAL

Registering as a professional

The Fair dedicates the first day exclusively to all professionals who visit: writers, librarians, editors, booksellers, copyright agents, distributors, illustrators and cultural promoters. All gather in a space favorable for business and meetings among colleagues. During the rest of the event, all registered participants can attend the activities scheduled organized by the FILH.

List to request registration as a Professional:

No.	Full name	Position within the company					ID or Passport number	Have you participated in FILH before? Specify year
		Writer	Editor	Bookseller	Designer	Other

Note: In case the list of participants exceeds the space available in this chart, a separate list should be prepared including the same information. The same format and font should be used. All requests will be subjected to the approval of the Organizing Committee.

Forms of payment:

Payment of badges will be made before the commencement of the event, preferably through bank transfer or check made out to the Cuban Book Chamber. Same forms of payment will apply once the FILH begins.
